

Mail Order List

Code	Name1	Name2	Details	Avail Period	Pic & Info (web)	€ HT
TOM1	Tomato	Blanche Beauté	Large white tomato with gentle flavour. Full flesh with little seed.	April-June	Blanche Beauté	1,50
TOM2	Tomato	Brandywine	Very large tomato with the best taste ever. Very fleshy with few pips. The potato leaves are naturally resistant to disease.	April-June	Brandywine	2,00
TOM3	Tomato	Gardener's Delight	Red cherry tomato, the best tasting. Heavy cropper of bite sized fruits.	April-June	Gardener's Delight	1,50
TOM4	Tomato	Red Pear	Red cherry tomato, in the shape of a small pear. Good trouble free cropping.	April-June	Red Pear	1,50
TOM5	Tomato	Yellow Pear	Yellow cherry tomato, in the shape of a small pear. Sweet non-acid flavour. Trouble free.	April-June	Yellow Pear	1,50
TOM6	Tomato	Sungold F1	The sweetest cherry tomato ever grown. Very heavy crop of golden fruits. A must.	April-June	Sungold	2,00
TOM7	Tomato	Beefheart	Large red fruits in the shape of a heart. Very fleshy with few pips.	April-June	Coeur de Boeuf	1,50
TOM8	Tomato	Cornue des Andes	Long piment shaped red fruits. Totally fleshy with a great taste.	April-June	Cornue des Andes	2,00
TOM9	Tomato	Matina	The earliest outdoor tomato. Medium sized tomatoes cropping all season long. The potato leaves are naturally resistant to disease.	April-June	Matina	1,50

TOM10	Tomato	Moneymaker	Popular established English variety that does very well in the French climate. One of the earliest, good tasting medium sized fruits over a very long season. Very productive, ripens even in poor conditions.	April-June	Moneymaker	1,50
TOM11	Tomato	Monda	Fixed version of one of the first hybrids (Montfavet). Very productive early fruits of medium size. Trouble free salad tomato.	April-June	Monda	1,50
TOM12	Tomato	Russian Black	Very popular full flavoured firm tomato. Dark brown fruits of medium to large size, to be eaten raw.	April-June	Noire de Crimée	2,00
TOM13	Tomato	Roma	The reference in Italian peeling tomatoes. The oval form makes it equally good for slicing. Very productive with little need for support.	April-June	Roma	1,50
TOM14	Tomato	Berner Rose	Very tasty, fleshy pink fruits of medium size. An old variety that has stood the test of time.	April-June	Rose de Berne	2,00
TOM15	Tomato	Saint Pierre	Traditional large full flavour tomato for all uses. Trouble free and very productive, if there's only space for one plant it's this one.	April-June	St Pierre	1,50
TOM16	Tomato	Pineapple	Large golden tomato with red stripes. Excellent quality. Fleshy and tasty and sweet.	April-June	Ananas	2,00
TOM17	Tomato	Orange Queen	Very large sweet and non-acid fruits. Good production and resistant to cracking.	April-June	Orange Queen	1,50
TOM18	Tomate	Estiva F1	A professional round firm and resistant to disease and cracking. Copes well in drought situations. Good taste	Avril-Juin	Estiva	2,00
AUB1	Aubergine	Abrivado F1	A standard with professionals now available to the public. Sure to produce the long purple fruits in all gardens.	April-June	Abrivado	2,00

AUB2	Aubergine	Bonica F1	The sister of Abrivado producing semi round 'italian' deep purple fruits. Equally productive in all situations.	April-June	Bonica	2,00
BAS1	Basil	Sweet Big Leaved	An all time classic. A must with tomatoes, this big leaved variety is easy to grow both in pot or garden. Produces masses of highly scented leaves - the one for pesto.	April-Aug	Grande Feuille	2.00
BAS2	Basil	Small Leaved	Fast becoming the most popular - this Italian basil is strong flavoured and very productive. Forms balls of densely packed leaves, very decorative in pots or garden.	April-Aug	Petite Feuille	2.00
BAS3	Basil	Pepper	Pungent flavoured and very decorative. Tinted with red, these leaves add a kick to salads and sauces. Pots or garden.	April-Aug	Poivrée	2.00
BAS4	Basil	Purple	The most attractive leaves, with a subtle smell but powerful taste. Plant it in the flowerbed for something different. Pots or garden.	April-Aug	Pourpre	2.00
BAS5	Basil	Lemon	An Indonesian special with the freshest smelling leaves. Great with fish or added to salads. Pots or garden.	April-Aug	Citron	2.00
BAS6	Basil	Cinnamon	A mexican/egyptian variety with wonderful sweet smelling leaves. Outstanding with strawberries and melons. Very decorative. Pots or garden.	April-Aug	Cannelle	2.00
BAS7	Basil	Thai	A must for Thai green curries, this very decorative and full scented basil adds a hint of the exotic to any dish. Pots or garden. Allow to flower to discover its full beauty.	April-Aug	Siam Queen	2.00
CIT1	Citronnelle	Lemon Grass	The special ingredient in Indonesian cooking. This fast growing grass will easily produce a clump of 1m+. Loves sun and heat.	May-June	Citronnelle de Madagascar	2.00

PER1	Perilla	Shiso Japanese Parsley Purple	The most decorative of all herbs, this dark purple beauty tastes great too - cumin with a hint of aniseed. The flowers are used as a sweetener.	April-Aug	Perilla Pourpre	2.00
PER2	Perilla	Sisho Japanese Parsley Green	Equally decorative as the purple, the green variety looks much like a stinging nettle with huge leaves (it does not sting). Tastes even more of cumin. Wrap and stuff with rice dishes.	April-Aug	Perilla Vert	2.00
CHU8	Chinese Cabbage	Pet sai 'Winter Giant'	A reliable Chinese winter cabbage. The large 'tower' of white stems topped with green leaves. Very resistant to cold. Good storage. Easy digestion.	Sept-Nov	Winter Giant	1,00
CHU9	Japanese Cabbage	Mizuna	Open hearts of fine-stemmed leaves eaten raw or cooked. Finds itself equally in place amongst the salads. Tolerant of drought and resistant to the cold.	March-Sept	Mizuna	1,00
CHU10	Chinese Mustard	Osaka	Eaten raw or cooked the mustard taste is a welcome addition to any meal. Pull leaves regularly for continued production. Flowers heads equally used.	March-Sept	Moutard de Chine	1,00
CON1	Cucumber	Marketmore	An easy to grow medium length outdoor cue. Can be trailed or suspended. No pinching of flowers needed.	April-June	Marketmore	1,50
CON2	Cucumber	Rollingson's Telegraph	Very long straight cues produced in large quantities. Can be trailed but better performance if suspended.	April-June	Telegraph	1,50
CON3	Gherkin	Small green of Paris	Heavy producer of fine quality gherkins. Need to be harvested often for best results. For pickling or salad use.	April-June	Petit Vert de Paris	1,50
COR1	Potimarron	Red Kuri	The best quality gourd by far producing an abundance of dark red fruits. A must for soups. Excellent storage throughout the winter months if kept frost free.	May-June	Potimarron	1,50

COR2	Courgette	Round (of Nice)	High quality round fruits produced in abundance if cut regularly. Excellent taste.	May-June	Rond de Nice	1,50
COR3	Courgette	Long (Tempra F1)	Professional production of high quality 20-25cm long courgettes. Equally good performance at beginning and end of season. Cut regularly.	May-June	Tempra	1,50
EPI1	Spinach	Everlasting	A perennial variety of spinach producing a constant supply of great tasting leaves. Good tolerance of drought and cold.	March-Sept	Everlasting Spinach	1,50
FRA	Strawberry	Woodland	A variety of cultivated woodland strawberry producing great tasting small fruits from may to sept.	March-Sept	Mignonette	2,00
MEL1	Melon	Grey of Rennes	Reliable cropper in all situations. An abundance of small but very sweet and tasty fruits.	April-June	Petit Gris de Rennes	1,50
PIM1	Pepper	Sweet Long Red	Pepper in the form of a chilli but not at all hot. Use same as square but more suited to grilling.	April-June	Corno di toro rouge	1,50
PIM2	Pepper	Sweet Square Red	Traditional sweet pepper giving a good production of green peppers which turn red when ripe.	April-June	Square Pepper	1,50
PIM3	Pepper	Cayeene	A nice hot chilli to spice up the dishes.	April-June	Cayeene	1,50